Biographical Sketch

Felix Paul Biestek, S.J., was born July 22, 1912, in Cicero, Illinois, to Peter Biestek and Sophia Stefanski Biestek. He was one of 6 children – three boys and three girls. Following graduation from Morton High School in 1929, Biestek attended Loyola University for two years (1930-1932) before spending a year of special study at Quigley Preparatory Seminary. On September 1, 1933, Biestek entered the Jesuit Novitiate at Milford, Ohio. He returned to Loyola University Chicago and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1939. In 1940 he received a master's degree in Sociology from St. Louis University. Following his ordination in 1945, Biestek went to the Catholic University of America where he received a Master of Social Work in 1949 and a Doctor of Social Work in 1951.

In 1951, Biestek was appointed to Loyola's School of Social Work, where he remained on the faculty for 25 years. Biestek was a leader in the field of Social Work, serving as Chair of the Commission on Accreditation for the Council on Social Work Education and on the board of directors and ethics committee for the National Association of Social Workers. He authored several books, including The Casework Relationship in 1957. In addition to his work in this field, Biestek served as a member of Loyola University Chicago's board of trustees for 17 years and as Superior of the Jesuit Community at Loyola, and later at Xavier University. Felix P. Biestek, S.J. was also a noted amateur portrait photographer, often taking photos of colleagues.

Felix Paul Biestek, S.J., passed away on December 24, 1994, at Loyola University Chicago.
