Biographical Sketch

Rev. Edward Carrigan, S.J. (13 January 1892 – 9 May 1944) and Brother Martin Lawrence Carrigan, S.J. (2 October 1893 – 5 November 1977), the sons of Samuel and Margaret Carrigan, were born in Hancock, Michigan.

Edward Carrigan entered the Society of Jesus in 1914 and was ordained as a priest. He taught at Xavier in Cincinnati where he later became the dean of the Liberal Arts College from 1930 to 1938. In 1938 He was assigned to Loyola University Chicago. Rev. Carrigan was a professor of English literature, a noted literary critic, and an authority on plays.

Martin Carrigan entered the Society of Jesus in 1925 as a postulant Coadjutor Brother. In 1928 he was assigned to Loyola University Chicago as bursar of the university, a position he filled until 1970 when he became the treasurer of the Chicago Jesuit Community.
