Administrative History

The Catholic Church Extension Society was established October 18, 1905, to serve the home missions, areas that lacked personnel, organization, and finances. The Extension Society has helped to build churches, educate and support clergy and seminarians, and has provided financial assistance for dioceses in the western and southern states as well as Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines. The Catholic Church Extension Society's work has been funded by donations and carried out by religious and lay missionaries.

Extension Magazine was created in 1906 for Catholic families. The magazine featured a section geared towards Catholic teens entitled "Teendom". In 1945 the magazine created an annual contest open to teens enrolled in Catholic high schools and colleges. The editors of the magazine picked four guest editors who then competed for the grand prize - a weeklong trip to Chicago, the opportunity to work in the editorial department of Extension, meet celebrities, receive prizes such as scholarships, new wardrobes, and tours of the Chicago area. The grand prize winner's experiences and stories was then featured in the October issue of Extension Magazine.

The magazine also featured an annual talent contest for all Catholic high schools. Extension Magazine's Teen Board representatives were in charge of submitting material for the magazine on behalf of their classmates.

Scope and Content

The Extension Magazine's Teen Contest records span the years 1945-1955 and consist of correspondence between Extension Magazine, the teen guest editor finalists, and the teen guest editor grand prize winner; Extension Magazine and companies; and other individuals involved with the contest.
