SAMUEL INSULL PAPERS

COLLECTION, 1799-1970, primarily, 1932-1935

100 Boxes or Scrapbooks, 18 Volumes, 1 Oversize File Folder,
and 8 Unboxed Items of Memorabilia

Accession Numbers 83-9 and 90-35

The Samuel Insull Papers were donated to Loyola University of Chicago in 1967 by Samuel Insull, Jr., an original member of the University's Lay Board of Trustees. In succeeding years small additions were received from Samuel Insull, Jr.; Audrey Miller; P. A. Linskey; Edith Malcolm; and Commonwealth Edison Company, through the courtesy of William H. Colwell, secretary of the Company, and George R. Jones, vice president and treasurer, retired, of Public Service Company of Northern Illinois. Prior to its donation to Loyola, Forrest McDonald used the collection in the preparation of Insull (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1962), his biography of Samuel Insull. Dr. McDonald's papers relating to the preparation of this biography were also donated to the Archives.

SELECTED BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES ON SAMUEL INSULL

1859, 11 November	Born, London, England, second of five children to survive to adulthood, of Samuel and Emma Short [Ann Short, on marriage certificate] Insull.
1879	Becomes private secretary and bookkeeper for Col. George E. Gouraud, London agent for Thomas A. Edison.
1881	Emigrates to the United States to become private secretary to Thomas A. Edison over whose business affairs he has charge for many years, representing him in the establishment of Electric Tube Company, Edison Lamp Company, and Edison Machine Works.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

The Samuel Insull Papers, composed of a wide variety of materials, cover the years from 1799 to 1970, but bulk most heavily in the period of Samuel Insull's extradition and trials, 1932-1935. Though the collection concerns primarily the career of Samuel Insull [SI] (1859-1938), it also contains many papers of his son, Samuel Insull, Jr. [SI, Jr.] (1900-1983), who took care of his father's affairs after he left the country in 1932 and who was administrator of his father's estate following his death in 1938. Material will also be found relating to other Insull family members, particularly Samuel Insull's wife Gladys [Margaret Anna Bird] and his brother Martin.

The Samuel Insull Papers have been divided into 22 series as described below. When a date has been placed in brackets it is either (a) the date of supporting documentation which is tangential and differs from the main body of related material, or (2) it is the date in Samuel Insull's life to which the material refers, rather than the date of the material. Page numbers refer to pages of the CONTAINER LIST where a more full listing of the contents of a series or subseries will be found.

An INDEX TO CORRESPONDENCE follows the CONTAINER LIST.

SERIES 1: SAMUEL INSULL - GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE, ca. 1883-1938 [1958], Boxes 1-8

Composed of letters sent and received by Samuel Insull on a wide variety of business and personal matters, this series spans the dates, circa 1883 to 1938, and is divided into three subseries as follows. Please note that the letters in subseries 1-A and 1-B often relate directly to each other.

Subseries 1-A: Letters Sent, 1887-1938 [1958], Boxes 1-2.

This subseries contains original letters and copies of letters sent by Samuel Insull, arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent, followed by an affidavit and the shorthand notebooks of James J. O'Keefe which contain letters dictated by SI, ca. 1934-1935. Please note that letters sent by SI to his son, SI, Jr., are found in this subseries rather than in Subseries 2-B. Also note that the outgoing correspondence in this subseries often relates directly to the incoming correspondence in Subseries 1-B.

Subseries 1-B: Letters Received, ca. 1883-1938, Boxes 3-8.

This subseries is composed of correspondence received by Samuel Insull, arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent. Please note that the incoming correspondence in this subseries often relates directly to the outgoing correspondence in Subseries 1-A.

Restricted are boxes 4 and 5, containing letters written to Samuel Insull by Margaret Anna Bird (stage name, Gladys Wallis) prior to their marriage in 1899. In accordance with the Instrument of Gift, access to this correspondence requires "specific permission of the University's Vice President and Dean of Faculties or such other officer or officers as may succeed him."

Subseries 1-C: Resignation Correspondence, 1932, Box 8.

In June of 1932, following his financial collapse, Samuel Insull resigned from the many companies he served as president, chairperson, and/or member of the board of directors. Contained in this subseries are his letters of resignation, related news releases, and letters of support and tribute in response to his resignations.

SERIES 2: SAMUEL INSULL, JR. - GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE, 1922-1945, Boxes 9-15.

This series is composed of correspondence of Samuel Insull, Jr., pertaining to his own business, legal, and personal affairs as well as those of his father for whom he held power of attorney, beginning in 1932. The series, covering the years 1922 through 1945, is divided into five subseries as follows:

Subseries 2-A: Outgoing Correspondence, 1923-1941, Box 9.

Copies of letters sent by Samuel Insull, Jr., arranged alphabetically by the name of the correspondent, make up this subseries. Please note that the outgoing correspondence in this subseries often relates directly to the incoming correspondence in Subseries 2-B. Letters sent by Samuel Insull, Jr., to his father, Samuel Insull, will be found in Subseries 1-B, folders 7-1 through 7-4.

Subseries 2-B: Incoming Correspondence, 1922-1945, Boxes 10-11.

This subseries is composed of letters sent to Samuel Insull, Jr., arranged alphabetically by the name of the correspondent. Please note that the incoming correspondence in this subseries often relates directly to the outgoing correspondence in Subseries 2-A. Note also that letters sent to Samuel Insull, Jr., by his father, Samuel Insull, will be found in Subseries 1-A, folders 1-3 through 2-3.

Subseries 2-C: Letters of Encouragement and Acquittal Congratulations, 1932-1935, Box 12.

Pertaining to the extradition and trials period which followed the Insull financial collapse of 1932, this subseries includes a list of those who offered help on acquittals and those who sent messages of congratulations following the acquittals, December 1933-June 1935; letters of encouragement sent during the trial period along with the replies of Samuel Insull, Jr, arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent, 1932-1934; and letters of congratulations on acquittal, November-December 1934, arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent with the replies of Samuel Insull, Jr., followed in a separate alphabetic arrangement by the letters sent to him.

Subseries 2-D: Condolences Upon Death of Samuel Insull, 1938, Boxes 13-14.

Letters of condolence received and replies sent by Samuel Insull, Jr., following the death of his father, Samuel Insull, in Paris on 16 July 1938. Lists of condolences received and replies sent are followed by copies of the replies, arranged alphabetically, and then by the letters of condolence themselves, arranged alphabetically.

Subseries 2-E: Correspondence with Former Investors, 1930-1944, Box 15.

Letters from former investors in Insull stocks who lost heavily in the Insull financial collapse together with copies of replies sent by Samuel Insull, Jr., arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent, 1930-1944.

SERIES 3: SAMUEL INSULL'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY WITH COMMONWEALTH EDISON, 1917, Box 16.

The 25th anniversary of Samuel Insull's employment by Commonwealth Edison Company was commemorated by a dinner in his honor. This series concerns the planning, execution, and follow-up details of the event. Included are letters sent and received by Samuel Insull, acceptances and regrets received by the dinner planners, and transcripts of the commemoration, including Samuel Insull's speech.

SERIES 4: SAMUEL INSULL AND CYRUS EATON CORRESPONDENCE, APRIL-JUNE 1930, Box 16.

Cyrus Eaton offered Insull the opportunity to purchase his large holdings in Insull companies before they were placed on the open market. This series is comprised of coded and decoded telegrams and copies of telegrams, copies of translations of coded telegrams, letters and copies of letters, and financial papers related to the negotiations surrounding Insull's purchase of Eaton's holdings, April-June 1930.

SERIES 5: AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL ACCOUNTS OF SAMUEL INSULL, 1909-1934 [1892-1962], Boxes 17-19.

This series, composed of autobiographical accounts of Samuel Insull and related material, has been subdivided into four subseries as detailed below. Please note that other autobiographical accounts will be found among Samuel Insull's speeches in Subseries 6-A, especially, folder 21-2, and in Series 8, folder 52-11. Biographical files will be found in Series 15 and Series 18.

Subseries 5-A: Edison Recollections, 1909 [1914], Box 17.

Samuel Insull's recollections of Thomas A. Edison, prepared for Edison biographer, T. Commerford Martin, and related correspondence, 1909 and 1914.

Subseries 5-B: Burton Y. Berry Conversations, 1934 [1947-1962], Box 17.

"Mr. Samuel Insull," 62 page manuscript by Burton Y. Berry, Samuel Insull's United States State Department guard, recording their conversations aboard the S.S. "Exilona," 13 April-8 May 1934, during Samuel Insull's return to the United States to face trial following his extradition from Turkey. Related correspondence is also included.

Subseries 5-C: Memoirs of Samuel Insull, 1934 [1939-1961], Boxes 17-18.

"Memoirs of Samuel Insull, Written 1934-1935," including the final approved typescript, earlier drafts, and stenographer James J. O'Keefe's shorthand notebooks and affidavits concerning the memoirs.

The records are arranged alphabetically by the name of the company with an overview of Insull-controlled companies placed first and tax advice by Murphy, Lanier & Quinn placed last. Related material will also be found in Subseries 5-D.

SERIES 9: RECEIVERSHIP AND ESTATE OF SAMUEL INSULL, 1930-1942, Boxes 56-57.

Following the collapse and receivership of his holding companies and the resultant loss of his personal fortune, Samuel Insull assigned all his assets and his wife, Margaret A. (Gladys), assigned her dower rights in these assets to Central Republic Trust which became trustee of the estate of Samuel Insull. W. C. Freeman and J. G. Alexander were administrators of these assets which were held for the benefit of Samuel Insull's creditors by the Central Trust Company. Freeman and Alexander became successor trustees to Central Republic Trust. Beginning 14 June 1932, Samuel Insull, Jr., had power of attorney over his father's affairs. He was also administrator of his father's estate. This series contains legal documents, power of attorney, correspondence, and audit reports relating to the administration of the trust and the estate of Samuel Insull, arranged in general chronological order with miscellaneous documents placed first.

Covering the years, 1925-1951, these files pertain to the federal income tax returns of Insull-related individuals and Insull Utility Investments, Inc., including federal income tax investigations and tax appeals. Among these records are copies of federal income tax returns, indexes to these returns, legal opinion and documents, outgoing correspondence, internal memos and notes, letters of protest and transmittal, clippings, and work papers. Subjects include: SI; Estate of SI; Margaret A. [Gladys] Insull; SI, Jr.; Adelaide Pierce Insull (first wife of SI, Jr.); Estate of Adelaide Pierce Insull; Samuel Insull III; Margaret Baynes Insull (second wife of SI, Jr.); Elma Insull McAdam (niece of SI); Mary MacIntosh (niece of SI); Estate of Charles I. Pierce (father-in-law of SI, Jr.); Grace M. Pierce and Samuel Insull, Jr., Trustees of the Estate of Charles I. Pierce; and Insull Utility Investments, Inc. Correspondents include the Collector of Internal Revenue, Philip J. McEnroe, and SI, Jr. The records are divided into three subseries as follows:

Subseries 13-A: Insull Individuals Correspondence, 1926-1945. Boxes 59-61.

Correspondence with Insull family members and other related individuals pertaining to federal income taxes and other financial matters, arranged chronologically, 1926-1945.

Subseries 13-B: Insull and Pierce Income Tax Matters, 1925-1951. Boxes 62-63.

Samuel Insull, Jr., married Adelaide Lyman Pierce, daughter of Louise Lyman and Charles I. Pierce, on 15 July 1926. Adelaide, who was born on 8 February 1898, died suddenly on 11 February 1934, leaving one son, Samuel Insull III, born 26 May 1931. SI, Jr.'s second marriage to Margaret [Peggy] Baynes took place several years later and lasted the remainder of his life. They had no children.

This subseries is composed of federal income tax returns of members of the Insull and Pierce families and their estates, arranged chronologically in indexed volumes, with the index to each volume to the front of each volume. Also included are an annual report and income tax returns of the Insull-Souder Insurance Agency, 1949-1950.

Subseries 13-C: Other Insull-related Income Tax Matters, 1926-1940 (primarily, 1936-1939), Boxes 64-65.

Included are tax returns, work papers, audit reports, legal documents, and tax appeals, relating primarily to SI, the SI Trust, the Estate of SI, Insull Utility Investments, Inc., and to Margaret A. [Gladys] Insull, arranged topically. Also includes information on SI, Jr.'s tax protest and Hawthorn Farm appraisal.

SERIES 14: EXTRADITION AND TRIALS PERIOD, 1932-1935 [1907-1931] Boxes 66-72.

SI went to Europe in June 1932, following the collapse of his companies. He was later indicted in the federal courts on charges of mail fraud and violation of the bankruptcy laws and in the state courts on charges of embezzlement. Fearing for his life and that a fair trial was not possible in the hostile political climate of the United States, he sought refuge in Greece which refused to extradite him to the United States. Under pressure from the U. S. government, SI was asked to leave Greece. He was seized by the Turkish government, and returned under U.S. State Department guard to face trial in 1934. He, his son, his brother Martin, and 14 others were eventually acquitted on all charges.

Arranged chronologically by topic, the series contains correspondence; death threats; federal indictment; transcript of testimony before the Grand Jury, regarding Corporation Securities Co. of Chicago bankruptcy indictment, May 1933; extradition documents; legal opinion; statements; transcripts and documents relating to the first federal trial (for mail fraud), state trial (embezzlement), second federal trial (violation of federal bankruptcy laws), and Martin J. Insull's extradition from Canada. See also Subseries 2-C, Box 12; and Subseries 15-C, Boxes 76-85.

SERIES 15: INSULL BIOGRAPHICAL FILES, [1859] 1892-1963, Boxes 73-86.

Divided into five subseries, this series is composed of clippings, biographical notes, and short biographical sketches document many of the details in the life of Samuel Insull and, to a lesser extent, his brother, Martin Insull; his son, Samuel Insull, Jr.; and his wife, Gladys Insull. For autobiographical accounts of Samuel Insull's life, see Series 5; Subseries 6-A, containing Samuel Insull's speeches, especially, folder 21-2; and Series 8, folder 52-11. Other biographical material will be found in Series 18.

Subseries 15-A: Biographical Files Maintained by William E. Keily, [1859], 1892-1933, Boxes 73-74.

William Eugene Keily worked with Samuel Insull and edited his published speeches and addresses. Keily planned one day to write a biography of SI and to this end collected biographical material and kept notes on his observations of SI. This material is maintained in the order in which it was received: Keily's biographical notes are followed by a report he made for SI; short biographies; biographical files, arranged in groupings by date and topically; with a biographical file on Mrs. Samuel [Gladys] Insull at the end. Please note that the date order in which the material is maintained is by the date in Samuel Insull's life to which the material refers [1859-1933], rather than the date of the clipping or note itself (1892-1933).

Subseries 15-B: Clipping Service for Samuel and Martin Insull, 24 August 1929-June 1935, Boxes 74-75.

Clippings from a clippings service were mounted and maintained in date order. The clippings on Samuel Insull, 1929-1931, are followed by the clippings on his brother Martin, 1931-1935.

Subseries 15-C: Receivership, Extradition, and Trials Clippings, 1932-1935, Boxes 76-85.

Clippings and biographical articles are maintained in date order, 1932-1935, and relate to the period of receivership, extradition, and trials of Samuel Insull, Martin Insull, Samuel Insull, Jr., and 14 other defendants. The first federal trial on mail fraud charges in the fall of 1934 is particularly well documented. There are no clippings on the acquittal in state court on embezzlement charges in March of 1935. The clippings in this subseries appear to have been maintained at least in part by SI, Jr..

Subseries 15-D: Post-Trial Clippings, 1935-19630, Box 85.

Clippings of a general nature, 1935-1960, include Samuel Insull's return to the United States in 1938 and death in Paris in 1938, and the death of Martin Insull in 1947.

Subseries 15-E: Clipping Scrapbooks, c. 1937-1944, Boxes 85-86.

Two scrapbooks of clippings on Samuel Insull are included in this subseries: one by Harry J. Dunbaugh, ca. 1937-1944; and one of Samuel Insull's death, July-August 1938.

SERIES 16: STATE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE OF ILLINOIS, 1917-1919, Boxes 87-88.

Samuel Insull served as chairman and E. J. Doyle as secretary of the State Council of Defense of Illinois (SCDI) during World War I. Records of these two officers, 1918-1919, particularly as they relate to the U.S. Government War Exposition in Chicago in 1918, are followed by record books of the SCDI, 1917-1919, and the SCDI letter book for 1918-1919. Included is a list of the SCDI records placed in the Illinois State Historical Library. Related materials will also be found in folders 19-15 and 94-3.

SERIES 17: PHOTOGRAPHS AND OTHER ILLUSTRATIONS, ca. 1860-ca. 1967, Boxes 89-90, Items 91-92.

This series is composed of photographs, photographic negatives, drawings, galley proofs, and scrapbooks containing photographs and letters. Subjects include Insull family members, associates, and friends as well as sites associated with SI and Thomas Edison.

Many of the photographs were used to illustrate Insull, the biography of Samuel Insull by Forest McDonald. Caution must be exercised in reproducing photographs because copyright may be retained by parties other than Loyola University of Chicago. In most instances when copyright ownership is held by another, there is an imprint on the back of the photograph, such as: "Please Credit Chicago Tribune Photo." There are, however, instances when the attribution made in Insull is not indicated on the back of the photograph. Permission must be granted by the holder of copyright to reproduce any of these photographs.

Photographic negatives are stored separately from photographic prints and may be handled only with permission of the archivist.

Series 17 has been divided into three subseries as follows:

Subseries 17-A: Photographs, 8"x10" and Smaller, ca. 1860-1930s, ca. 1967, Box 89.

Photographic prints and negatives as well as drawings of Insull family members and sites associated with them as well as the theatrical career of Gladys Wallis [Margaret A. Bird] before her marriage to SI, arranged in chronological order by topic. They are followed first by illustrations of Insull associates, friends, and others and then by Edison-related and miscellaneous photographs.

Subseries 17-B: Oversize Photographs and Galley Proofs, 1864-ca. 1962, Box 90.

A cartoon and photographic prints and negatives of Insull family members are arranged in chronological order by topic. They are followed first by photos of Insull associates, friends, and others and then by photos of Insull's 1905 summer home in England and galley proofs of the illustrations in Forrest McDonald's biography, Insull. Be aware that some photo attributions found in the McDonald biography are not present on the back of the photos.

Subseries 17-C: Insull-Bird Marriage Scrapbooks, 1898-1899 [1880s-1909], Items 91-92.

Two scrapbooks were prepared by Alick G. McAndrew for the marriage of Margaret Anna [Gladys Wallis] Bird and Samuel Insull. In them are many photographs, clippings, and letters of family and friends, including Thomas A. Edison and early Edison pioneers. Some loose items added after the marriage in 1899 have been placed in file folders inside the covers the albums.

Vol. I, "Insull-Bird, " Item 91.

Contains photographs, clippings, and letters, relating to the careers and impending marriage of Margaret Anna Bird [stage name, Gladys Wallis] and Samuel Insull.

Vol. II, "Insull Illustrated," Item 92.

Contains letters, photographs, and clippings relating to the career of Samuel Insull and his impending marriage.

SERIES 18: SAMUEL INSULL AND INSULL FAMILY: MISCELLANEOUS
BIOGRAPHICAL DATA, 1799-1970, Boxes 93-95, Map Drawer 14, folder 1.

Correspondence, short biographies, genealogical records, programs, tributes, financial records, powers of attorney, copyrights, publications, report cards, records of Gladys Insull's benefit performance in School for Scandal, address books and lists, Samuel Insull's library catalog, an appointment book, horoscope, notes, Samuel Insull's death certificate, and other miscellaneous documents of a biographical nature pertaining to the Insull family, particularly, Samuel Insull, Gladys Insull, and Samuel Insull, Jr. The records are arranged topically in a rough chronological order with short biographies of Samuel Insull placed first.

SERIES 19: MISCELLANY, 1892-1956, n.d. Box 95-96.

Miscellaneous material, 1883-1938, not directly attributed to the Insull family includes a Edison General Electric Company proposal, Edison medal, Great Lakes electric power surveys, Chambers Island (Wisconsin) promotional material, correspondence on the economic crisis in Detroit and Michigan in 1933, maps of electrical undertakings in Great Britain, and a biography of Britton I. Budd, arranged chronologically.

SERIES 20: RUSSELL, BREWSTER & CO. AND PREDECESSOR, EDWARD L.
BREWSTER & CO., STOCK AND BOND CIRCULARS, 1901-1921,
Box 97.

Stock and bond circulars issued by Russell, Brewster & Co. and its predecessor, Edward L. Brewster & Co., bound chronologically in two volumes. Included are stock and bond circulars for Insull-controlled companies.

SERIES 21: MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS, 1882-1946, Boxes 98-99, 3 volumes.

Monographs, published speeches, government documents, reports, atlas, biographical dictionary, annual reports, and other publications dealing with such subjects as public utilities, particularly electrical power, speculation in securities and commodities, and Chicago and Chicagoans, arranged chronologically.

SERIES 22: MEMORABILIA, 1882-1927, Boxes 99-100, 8 Individual Items

Bound volumes, portraits, silver objects, plaques, watches, certificates, decorations, and other three-dimensional objects, most of which were presented to Samuel Insull in honor of his accomplishments.
