Scope and Content

This collection consists of 18 boxes, spanning the years 1813 to 1986, being predominantly from 1900-1982, and includes theater programs and pamphlets from Chicago and the surrounding area, and national and international theaters. These programs are divided into four series: Chicago Theaters, Regional Theaters, National Theaters, and International Theaters. The materials are arranged alphabetically by theater and play/program. Original order was maintained where possible.

Series Listing

Series 1: Chicago Theaters, 1902-1986, n. d., Boxes 1-14

Contains programs, pamphlets, and stagebills for Chicago theaters including but not limited to the Blackstone, Erlanger, Harris, Ivanhoe, Orchestra Hall, Shubert, and Studebaker, the 11th Street theater, and Second City.

Series 2: Regional Theaters, 1939-1984, n. d., Boxes 15-16

Includes programs, pamphlets, and stagebills for Chicago region theaters. The majority are from the northern suburbs of Chicago and include theaters in Wilmette, Lake Forest and Evanston.

Series 3: National Theaters, 1901-1974, n. d., Boxes 17-18

Contains programs, pamphlets, and stagebills for national theaters outside of Illinois. Theaters are first listed by the state in which they are located, then by theater and date. States include California, Florida, New York, Minnesota, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

Series 4: International Theaters, 1813-1964, n. d., Box 18

Contains programs, pamphlets, and stagebills for theaters in England, Ireland, and Germany. The theaters are first listed by country of origin, followed by theater and date.
