

The 44th Annual Edward L. Surtz Lecture in the Humanities

Since 1973, the Surtz Lecture has promoted interdisciplinary and trans-historical humanistic inquiry at Loyola University Chicago. This lecture honors the memory and scholarship of Edward L. Surtz, S.J., a beloved member of the Loyola faculty and distinguished scholar of early modern literature and renaissance humanism.

THE CHALLENGE OF TRANSLATING THE BIBLE

A lecture by Robert Alter

Professor of Hebrew and Comparative Literature
University of California at Berkeley

Wednesday, Feb. 26, 2020
Information Commons
4th Floor Lecture Hall
4:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Reception to Follow

The Surtz Lecture is co-sponsored by:
the John Cardinal Cody Endowed Chair in Theology,
the Hank Center for the Catholic Intellectual Heritage, and the Theology Department

Chagall. Exodus: Moses and the burning bush. 1966

Robert Alter is author of more than 20 books of criticism, translation, and commentary, most recently The Art of Bible Translation (2019). His complete translation of the Hebrew Bible, a work 24 years in the making, was published by W.W. Norton in 2018 and has been acclaimed in the New York Times magazine and elsewhere as stylistically faithful to the Hebrew while inventively artful in English. Alter has also written extensively on the European novel, contemporary American fiction, and modern Hebrew literature.

For more information, contact Ian Cornelius at: icornelius@luc.edu/773-508-2332