Greetings, Fellow Graduate Students!

On behalf of the Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Association and the Department of History, I would like to welcome you to the Fifth Annual Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Conference. The mission of Loyola's History Graduate Student Association is to represent the interests of the history graduate students to Loyola faculty, staff, and administration, as well as to cultivate academic excellence and community amongst graduate students.

In commemoration of the conference's fifth anniversary, we have expanded our conference programs and activities. Our fifth annual conference brings together over forty graduate history scholars, whose works chronologically span from the early medieval era to the end of the twentieth century, and encompass a diversity of subject areas, including a first for us—a public history poster session!

In addition to the usual Saturday conference proceedings, this year we are pleased and honored to welcome Dr. Elliott Gorn of Brown University who is delivering our inaugural keynote address on Friday evening. It is our hope that this weekend's events will provide graduate students with opportunities to critically evaluate and engage not only with the past, but with each other as well.

Once again, I would like to welcome you and thank all of you for your role in making this day a success.

Sincerely,

*Stella Ress, President
LUC History Graduate Student Association*
